DECOR PEOPLE

“Finding urgent solutions to the catastrophic climate crisis that looms ahead. Seeking equality and sustainability within the built environment is the only way forward and it will require a complete transformation in our attitudes towards design and living”

MARTAND KHOSLA
Partner, Romi Khosla Design Studios

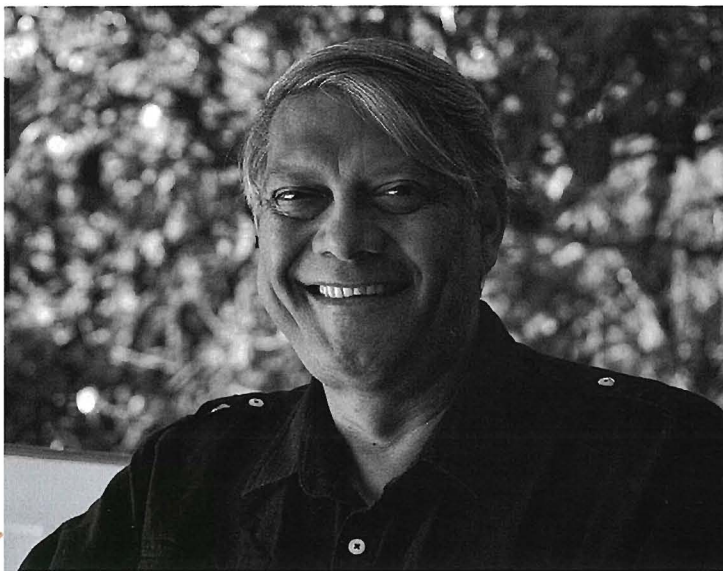

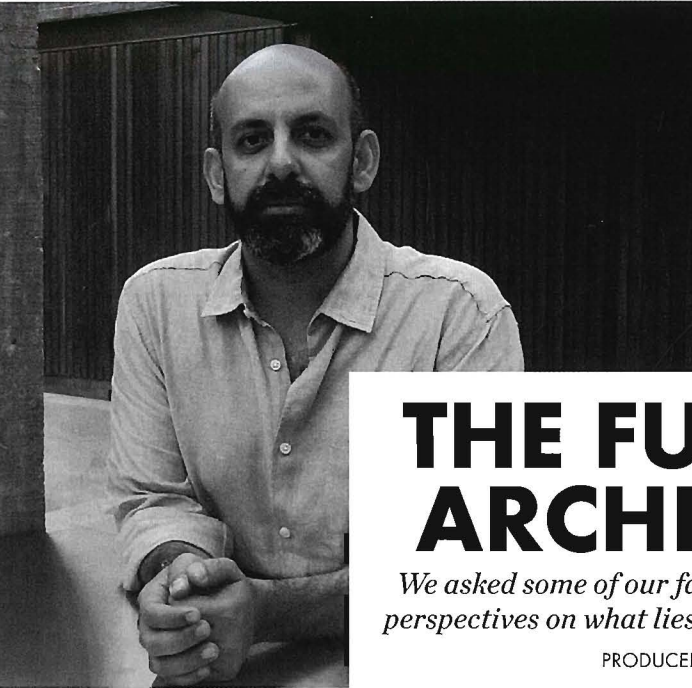

“The future of architecture is as glorious as its past. It is the next generation of architects that concerns me. The world is changing and they need to stay tuned to the future as well as remain connected to the past and the present”

PRADEEP SACHDEVA
Principal Architect, Pradeep Sachdeva Design Associates

THE FUTURE OF ARCHITECTURE

We asked some of our favourite creatives to share their perspectives on what lies ahead for this domain of design

PRODUCED BY AMAN MEHTA

“The future of architecture needs to redefine sustainability and go beyond the present norms by creating a more equitable architecture of collaborative communities, where people can collectively and innovatively tackle challenges”

DEAN D'CRUZ
Principal Architect, Mozaic

“The future of architecture is not in creating singular cocoon-like built environments but in large, comprehensive precinct developments that are all inclusive, aspirational and address the sociocultural and technological needs of a community”

SONALI BHAGWATI
President, DPA
